

Over $10,000 raised for charity at Reventon snooker events

Last weekend marked the Final Triple Crown event of 2018, the Reventon Masters in support of the White Ribbon Foundation.

At the event, founder and CEO of Reventon Chris Christofi presented the charity with a cheque for $10,226, which was raised across three snooker events:

Reventon Classic – $7,366

Ian Chappell – $610

Reventon Masters – $2,250

The money will go towards the important work of the White Ribbon Foundation, helping to prevent men's violence against women and advocating for women's safety.

Reventon has been a proud sponsor of snooker since 2010, supporting the community and selected partner charities in addition to helping thousands of Australians to secure their financial future.

We build you wealth, we protect your wealth, we help you create a legacy

Learn more about creating a legacy with Reventon